

Purdue University Study Abroad Program

Globalization and the US-China Economic Interactions

Maymester 2009

Destinations

Beijing, Shanghai, Chongqing, and Xi'an

Program

We will travel around China to visit business firms, manufacture, markets, and agricultural fields, interacting with Chinese entrepreneurs and college students. We will be in Beijing touring the Forbidden City, the Great Wall, and the new Olympic sites; in Xi'an visiting the Terra Cotta Warriors; in Shanghai experiencing the modern economy; and cruising along the Yangtze River.

Dates of Program

15 days during Maymester 2009

Tentatively May 18 – June 1, 2009

Credits

3 credits, no prerequisites, open to all majors

Tuition

None.

Program Fees

$3500, cover everything including round trip tickets, local transportation, hotel, meals, tour site entry fees, and Purdue fees.

Faculty Advisors

Drs. Holly Wang (main contact), 4-4245, wanghong@purdue.edu, Phil Abbot, and Brigitte Waldorf, Department of Agricultural Economics.

<http://www.agecon.purdue.edu/academic/sa316/>

