Estate & Family Business Transfer Planning:
Individuals, Spouses, and Family Businesses
February 9 & 10, 2010
6:55 p.m. - 9:40 p.m., EST
Dearborn County Office, City Hall, 229 Main St. Aurora, IN

This seminar is sponsored by the Dearborn County Purdue Cooperative Extension Service and the Department of Agricultural Economics at Purdue University. Topics discussed are intended for individuals, their spouses, adult children and especially those with interests in family-owned businesses. Professionals who assist others with their estate and financial planning needs are encouraged to register. Five hours of continuing education credit is available for Indiana professionals: insurance producers (CE), accountants (CPE) and lawyers (CLE).

The presenter Gerry Harrison is an Extension Economist and member of the Indiana Bar. Dr. Harrison has presented programs on estate and family business transfer planning for over 36 years. Besides research, teaching and writing for Purdue Extension, he has taught three courses at Purdue: Estate and Family Business Transfer Planning, Federal Income Tax and Agricultural Law. Gerry is also a landowner along with his family in Lee County Illinois.
