

FAQ 2

Where Do I Find Current and Historical Market Prices for Commodities and Livestock?

Prepared by: Kimberly J. Moore, ANR Extension Educator, Johnson County

Reviewed by: Jimmy Bricker

Resources for Commodity and Livestock Market Prices

Resources	Sources
Indiana Historical Price Tables (EC-661). Provides 10-year historical prices for corn, soybeans, wheat, hogs, and milk.	http://www.ces.purdue.edu/extmedia/EC/EC-661.pdf
Purdue Extension Web site with historical prices for crops and livestock from Illinois, Kentucky, and Indiana. Price outlooks also available.	http://www.agecon.purdue.edu/extensio/index.htm
Farming the Net Web site from Ohio State University. Offers links for market reports, prices, & services.	http://www.ag.ohio-state.edu/~farmnet/links/agmarket.html#Market Reports, Prices
DTN AgDayta Web site w. CBOT commodity prices	http://www.agdayta.com/
Indiana Agricultural Statistics Service	http://www.nass.usda.gov/in/index.htm
Indiana AgCentral Web site w. CBOT commodity prices	http://www.ag-central.com/state.asp?state=indiana
Formerly CyberCrop.com. Tracks commodity prices.	http://www.cybercrop.com/
Chicago Board of Trade for commodity futures	http://www.cbot.com/
AgWeb link with market prices for commodities	http://www.agweb.com/
National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) Web sites for historical crop and livestock prices	http://www.usda.gov/nass/
NASS on-line database that allows you to search by state for yearly prices on a variety of ag products	http://www.nass.usda.gov/QuickStats/Create_Federal_Indv.jsp

Date Prepared: October 2001