

Purdue University Study Abroad Program

Globalization and the US-China Economic Interactions

Maymester 2011

Destinations

Beijing, Shanghai, Chongqing, and Xi'an

Program

We will travel around China to visit US Embassy, business like John Deere, markets, and agricultural fields, interacting with USDA representatives in China, Chinese top entrepreneurs and university students. We will be in Beijing touring the Forbidden City, the Great Wall, and the Olympic sites; in Xi'an visiting the Terra Cotta Warriors; in Shanghai experiencing the modern economy and World Expo; and cruising along the Yangtze River.

Dates of Program

Tentatively May 16 – May 30, 2011, 15 days

Credits

3 credits, no prerequisites, open to all majors

Tuition

None.

Program Fees

$3500, covering round trip tickets, local transportation, hotel, meals, tour site entry fees, and Purdue fees.

Faculty Advisor

Dr. Holly Wang (main contact), 4-4245, wanghong@purdue.edu, Department of Agricultural Economics.

